She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: 'Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.' Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. – Proverbs 31: 25-

Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord, the fruit of the womb a reward. – Psalm 127:3

Children are God's love-gift; they are
heaven's generous
reward. – Psalm 127:3

Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:6

And let us not be
weary in well
doing: for in due
season we shall
reap, if we faint
not.

Galatians 6:9
